Scaffold for critically evaluate

Critically evaluate – add a degree or level of accuracy, depth, knowledge and understanding, logic, questioning, reflection and quality to evaluate.

Evaluate - make a judgement based on criteria; determine the value of.

Issue to be critically evaluated:

Point for: Elaboration and support: Point for: Elaboration and support: Point against: Elaboration and support: Point against: Elaboration and support:

Criteria used to assess points for and against:

Conclusion and judgement:

Points to note:
Statement of topic to be critically evaluated.

Preview of points for and against and concluding judgement.

Topic sentence at the beginning of each paragraph followed by explanation and examples to illustrate point.

Points could also be advantages and disadvantages instead of for and against.

Use linking words (such as: therefore, because, however, for instance, for example, as a result).

Criteria used to make a judgement could be used during the points for and against to illustrate unclear reference more clearly.

Brief summary of points for and against.

Must make a judgement at the end either for OR against the argument and draw conclusions regarding about support for or against issue through the use of a criteria.